

---

Windows Developer

Job Snapshot

Base Pay: $75,000 - $85,000 /Year
Bonus: $7,000.00
Employee Type: Full-Time Employee
Industry: Consumer Products
Manages Others: No
Job Type: Design; Engineering; Information Technology
Education: 4 Year Degree
Posted: 9/23/2008

Description

This position is for a full time Windows Developer to work for a global products and services organization. We are looking for someone with 4 to 10 years of Windows software development experience from Visual Studio 6 to Visual Studio 2008 especially in the area of Visual C++ for multi-threading application and GUI.

Requirements

- More than two years of professional real-time software development experience. INtime is preferred but other Windows or Linux real-time extension will also be considered.
- Database development experience such as MS-Access is a must. SQL Server and MySQL experience is also preferred.
- Development experience with machine control and object tracking in industrial automation is strongly preferred.
- Visual Basic is preferred.
- Source code control includes Visual Source Safe, PVCS and CVS.

Ability to interpret and convey technical concepts in an easily understood manner, both verbally and in writing, clear and concise verbal and written communications. Good analytical skills, creative ability using PASCAL and C programming languages, electromechanical aptitude; good organizational skills, ability to make presentations; self motivated, ability to work under general supervision, receptive and supportive of team efforts. Some travel is required.